Who can do this course? The Soul Mate Course is a one day course and no experience of ThetaHealing® is necessary for you to make amazing changes in your life. For ThetaHealing® practitioners, there is a second day that includes more valuable downloads and belief work. There will be a digging demonstration with great tips to get you digging like Vianna.

Connection With All That Is!!

How often do we get caught up with what is going on in our life that we simply forget to connect with those that are important to us. In our roles as ThetaHealers® we always make sure that we connect to and stay connected to The Creator Of All That Is, but how long has it been since you said hello to your family, friends and even your course mates.

Facebook makes it really easy to contact people but what about really connecting. So many people hide behind a pretty page with nice posts all the while they may be having the worst time ever. Let's work on a deeper connection with everyone and everything in All That Is...

Issues and Insights

Issue: I recently was offered a free ThetaHealing® so I took the opportunity and did it. After I had the session I felt more messed up than I was before it and so I had to pay another practitioner to sort me out again. Which worked really well. Why did this happen?

Insight: Without knowing the specifics of the two sessions, it is hard to say. But to give you an answer to your brave question, it probably has something to do with your belief system around the value you put on "Free". In our society today, there is so much that is free or given away that we now start to devalue anything that is free. Imagine then what your subconscious might think of something that is free, and what sort of results you will get because of it. It had probably already determined that there was no value and totally shut off. In the second session you paid the practitioner so your subconscious mind wanted value for money, so it was more engaged in the healing.

There is nothing wrong with free but there needs to be some type of energy exchange to balance things out. Healing swaps are a great way to do this.
